VOLUME XXVI.

MT. STERLING, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1916.

NUMBER 12

CATTLE PENS ARE CROWDED

More Cattle on the Market than the Pens Could Accommodate and Market Brisk.

Big run of cattle, pens all full and that means 5,000, and from 1,000 to 1,500 left in pastures for want of pens. Trade brisk and the scales were kept pretty busy all day. Prices were good, but about 50 cents lower than last court. A few cattle sold above 7 cents, one bunch at $7.40, but bulk of sales at around 7 cents. Yearlings at $6 to $7.25; heifers 5½ to 6 cents; cows 5 to 5½ cents; old cows and rough oxen at 3 to 4½ cents. Good crowd at the pens and we noticed some buyers from Greenfield, Ohio.

SALES

Sam Keeton sold 11 700-pound steers to Jas. Skidmore at 7 cents; Wm. Highland bought 27 about 600-pound steers of Chas. Stampfer at $37.50 per head; Morgan Owens sold 26 600-pound steers to Simon Weil & Son, of Lexington, at 6½ cents; Harry Stafford sold 12 850-pound steers to Geo. Blevins at 7 cents; Sam Keeton sold 25 850-pound steers to J. S. Skidmore, of Fayette county, at 7 cents; Jas. Little sold a bunch of 1050-pound steers to N. P. Gay, of Clark county, at 7 cents; Sam Wheeler sold 19 425-pound heifers to Houston & Jones, of Paris, at 6 cents; John Baker sold 9 600-pound steers to J. T. Crockett, of Bath county, at 6½ cents; Mr. Miller sold 10 600-pound steers to Moore Bros., at $5.75 per hundred; Watson & Co. sold a bunch of 750-pound steers to D. C. Cleveland, of Cynthiana, at $6.25 per hundred; Elgin Sharp sold 25 200-pound steers to Weil & Co., at $6.25 per hundred; Fillmore Webb sold 5 600-pound steers to Jas. McCormick at $6.75 per hundred; Oscar Moss bought 30 650-pound steers of various parties at 7 cents; A. J. Hughes & Co. bought 80 cows and oxen (canners) at from 3 to 4½ cents; Sam Wheeler sold 8 500-pound heifers to W. A. Sutton at $5.75 per hundred; Wm. Oliver sold 30 550-pound steers to Wm. Stinson, of Greenfield, O., at 7 cents; Mr. Stinson bought several cars of stock at about these prices; C. O. Griffin, of same place, bought four cars of about 800-pound steers at from 6½ to 6 cents; Mr. Oliver also sold 4 725-pound steers to Jonas Weil & Co., at $6.75 per hundred; W. B. Bailey sold 25 650-pound steers to Weil & Co., of Lexington, at $6.25 per hundred; Harris Howard sold 126 850-pound steers to Weil & Co., at $7.25, 26 at 7 cents; Sam Keeton sold 14 700-pound steers at 7 cents to Fayette county party; Dock Colyer sold 10 800-pound steers to Keadall Bros., of Cynthiana, at 6½ cents; D. C. Cleveland, of Harrison county, bought about 40 850-pound steers at $6.75 per hundred; Jas. McGuire sold 7 600-pound steers to W. L. Evans at 6½ cents; Shelby Trumble sold 10 700-pound steers to Reece Owings at $7.40 per hundred; Mike Wilson sold a bunch of 900-pound steers to W. C. Kendall, of Harrison county, at $7.25 per hundred; W. P. Trendway sold a bunch of 800-pound steers to Weil & Co., of Lexington, at 6½ cents; Noah Stapleton sold 15 600-pound steers to Roy Scott, of Clark county, at $6.65 per hundred; W. C. Kendall bought 8 750-pound steers of Frank Lockridge at 7 cents. Many other sales at these prices.

MULES

Very few mules on the market, that is aged mules. Lexington parties bought 19 head at from $150 to $200 per head. Quite a number of weanlings on the market but owners said the market was slow. We heard of some sales of mare mules at from $70 to $90 per head.

BOY KICKED BY MULE

Two little boys named Banks were playing on the corner of Main and Bank streets yesterday afternoon when one of them struck a mule with a whip on the hind legs, while his brother was standing just back of the mule. Doctor McKenna dressed his wounds and took him to his home, and while his wounds are very painful, a large gash being cut in his cheek and head, they are not considered serious.

Peerless Exchange.

The Peerless Exchange has moved over the Advocate office.

PRESIDENT'S SISTER DEAD

Mrs. Annie E. Howe, only sister of President Woodrow Wilson, died Saturday of peritonitis at New London, Conn. The body was taken to Columbia, S. C., for burial. Mrs. Howe had been quite ill for several weeks.

READ THE FARM AD.

On another page of this paper you will find a large advertisement of the sale of three blue grass farms and if you are in the market for a farm it will pay you to look at these.

Lost: Gold bracelet set with pearls, on High street between Elm and Maysville Saturday afternoon. Reward for return to Roberts & Mastin.

ANSWERS LAST ROLL CALL

General Basil W. Duke, Beloved Soldier, Brilliant Lawyer and Well Known Writer, is Dead.

At the ripe old age of seventy-nine, surrounded by those near and dear to him, after a gallant fight, General Basil W. Duke answered the last roll call Saturday morning and passed beyond to mingle with the comrades that had gone before. Only a short while ago he underwent an operation due to an infection from a wound received during the Civil War and had his right foot removed, later another operation was found necessary and it was thought that he was getting along nicely until only a few hours before his death, when fever developed and he sank rapidly. He had an active military career, being one of Morgan's men, and was one of the most beloved men of the Confederacy.

Funeral services were held in Lexington yesterday afternoon.

MOSE FELTNER KILLED

Mose Feltner, for more than fifteen years a prominent figure in the Eastern Kentucky feuds, was killed near Hazard, Ky., Sunday night by United States Marshal G. A. Sizemore. Feltner was under arrest for some violation of the government revenue laws when he suddenly decided that he would not be arrested and attempted to overpower the officer who is a small man and had about accomplished his purpose when the officer pulled his pistol and shot Feltner three times, killing him instantly. Feltner first came into prominence during the Hargis-Cockrell feud. Feltner's tragic death was a logical conclusion to his stormy life.

AID YOUNG MAN

After a statement was made by Mr. W. C. Hamilton to the members of the Hazelrigg Bible Class Sunday morning regarding a young man needing some assistance in order that he might enter college, a collection amounting to nearly $37.00 was taken and we are glad to say the funds were sufficient. The Hazelrigg Bible Class is made up of men ever ready to aid the needy and worthy and we congratulate them upon assisting this young man to obtain an education, the greatest asset any man can have.

A CARD

To the Democrats of Montgomery County:

In due time I shall make formal announcement as a candidate for Superintendent of Schools of Montgomery county, subject to the action of the Democratic party at the State primary election to be held in August 1917, and would thank you for any consideration you may extend me.

(Mrs.) Fanny Hunt Priest.

ATTENTION DEMOCRATS!

Registration Day in this city will be on Tuesday, Oct. 3rd.

BUYS GREAT COLT

Peter Royal, the crack yearling colt by Peter Montgomery, was bought by Mr. J. L. Dodge last week at a reported price of $3,000. The sire of this colt is owned by Beau Bros., of this county, and is fast making a reputation for himself.

Ladies of the Country.

When you are in the city shopping and are tired or hungry come to the Tea Cup Inn and enjoy the rest room and get a most appetizing lunch. Miss Lucy Randall.

GOES WITH NEW STORE

Mr. Roger D. Barnes has severed his connection with the store of T. K. Barnes & Sons and will be connected with the new Sanitary Meat Co. Mr. Barnes is a hustler and thoroughly understands the business, having been connected with his father and brothers for many years. The firm name of T. K. Barnes & Sons will remain as heretofore and the business will be conducted along the same high standard as in the past.

YOUNG PEOPLE MARRY

Miss Stella Goodpaster and Mr. John Steele, both formerly of Bath county, were married Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Christian church parsonage by Rev. Clyde Darsie. The bride is a daughter of Fountain Goodpaster, a well known farmer. Mr. Steele has been for some time employed in one of the industries at Dayton, Ohio, where the happy couple went immediately after the ceremony had been performed.

DEDICATION POSTPONED

On account of the illness of Dr. W. D. Powell, the Baptist church will not be dedicated on the first Sunday in October, as had been planned. The church will not be dedicated until some time in November, however the church is completed and will be furnished by the first Sunday in October, and the first service will be held in the main auditorium on that day.

VISIT SCHOOL

The pupils of the colored schools were marched through the streets in a body one day last week and visited the white school where they were shown how classes, etc., were conducted. Prof. Adams, who has charge of the colored schools, of the city, is doing all he can to arouse the interest of his scholars in doing their best work.

SHAVE 15 CENTS

Beginning October 1st, all the white barber shops in this city will charge 15 cents for a shave on account of the high cost of material. All of the shops with the exception of the National Hotel shop and Turner's shop had been charging 10 cents.

INTERESTING GAME

The Mt. Sterling baseball team defeated Lawrenceburg Sunday afternoon in a ten inning game, the score being 1 to 0. Vallandigham pitched wonderful ball for the locals while Bacon for the visitors did excellent work. The game was played at Riddell's park.

GOOD RACE MEETING

The race meeting which closed at Lexington Saturday was well attended and the racing was of the highest order. The purses were larger than ever before. Jockey F. Murphy was the riding star of the meeting.

NO EXTRA SESSION

In an interview with a representative of the Lexington Leader Gov. A. O. Stanley is reported to have said that despite the reports to the contrary that there would not be a special session of the Legislature called November 15th.

WILL SPEAK HERE

Hon. Edwin P. Morrow will address the people of this city and county Wednesday afternoon in the interest of the Republican national ticket.

For Sale or Rent.—Cottage on West Main street. Apply to Miss Sue Evans, (13 ft) Clay and Sycamore Sts.

Celery, cauliflower, lettuce, pickling cucumbers, 2-year-old apple vinegar. Sanitary Meat Co.

WILL BUILD NEW GARAGE

Mr. A. B. Pieratt Sells Livery Stable Property on Maysville Street Last Week.

Mr. A. B. Pieratt last week sold his livery stable property on Maysville street, better known as the old Harper stable, to Messrs. L. E. Griggs, S. S. Pinney and W. P. Oldham, and the work of clearing away the buildings that are now on the lot will start this week.

A modern brick garage will be erected with entrances on Maysville and High streets and equipped with all the modern machinery usually found in a first class garage and a competent mechanic will be placed in charge. The agency for several cars will be secured. The work of building the garage will be rushed as fast as possible. The three above named gentlemen will have charge of the business.

The lumber in the buildings to be wrecked is suitable for tobacco barns and is for sale.

ACTION POSTPONED

At the meeting of the City Council last Tuesday night action was postponed on the question of a municipally owned lighting plant. The committee has all the data required. The Kentucky Utilities Company has made a proposal to the city to furnish certain kinds of lights that will materially reduce the cost and it is thought will give as good if not better service than we are now obtaining. The council is giving the matter serious consideration and whatever action it may take it will be for the best interests of the people.

PROHIBITION LEADER DEAD

Col. T. B. Demaree, a leading resident of Wilmore and a prominent figure in the Prohibition party of this State, died at a Lexington hospital Saturday night. He was 72 years of age. He was a candidate several times for Congress and once made the race for Governor on the Prohibition ticket. He was a good, clean man and his death is a loss to the State.

GREATEST FAIR EVER GIVEN

It is the consensus of opinion that the State Fair which closed Saturday was the greatest one ever given and Commissioner of Agriculture Cohen and Secretary Gooch are being congratulated on all sides. There were more than 4,000 more people in attendance at this fair than any fair since the organization of the State Fair.

WILL OPEN TEA ROOM

Miss Lucy Randall has moved the Peerless Exchange to the second floor of the building occupied by the Advocate Publishing Company, on Main street, and will have in connection with the exchange a rest and tea room. The rest room will be equipped for the convenience of the tired shopper and she may obtain tea, coffee or any hot drink and be served with sandwiches or a light lunch. See the notice of her formal opening appearing elsewhere in this paper.

DIES AT SALT LICK

Mr. James Casey, for many years a resident of this city, died at his home at Salt Lick, Bath county, last Wednesday after a short illness. He is survived by his wife and two children and one daughter by his first wife. He was a prominent lodge man, being connected with several organizations. A good natured, open hearted, genial man, he made many friends and the news of his death was received with sorrow.

SETH LOW DEAD

Hon. Seth Low, former Mayor of New York and at one time President of Columbia University, died at his country home at Bedford Hills, N. Y., Sunday after an illness of many months. He led an active, useful life, being a deep scholar and thinker. He was a great friend of the labor unions.

WINS AT STATE FAIR

Chiles & Co., won the following at the Kentucky State Fair last week: Single Comb Rhode Island Reds, first cock and cockerel, 2nd hen, 4th pullet, 5th pen. Single Comb Buff Orpington, first cockerel, 3rd hen and 4th and 5th pullets, lets.

CHANGE POSITIONS

Mr. Daniel Boone has resigned his position with S. P. Greenwade and accepted a similar position with the Sanitary Meat Co. Mr. Boone is succeeded by Mr. Gay Wilson at Greenwade's.

BUY NEW CARS

Mr. Geo. R. Snyder has recently bought a beautiful new Hupp touring car. Mr. O. B. Clark has purchased through The Mt. Sterling Garage one of those popular six cylinder Buicks.

A MODERNIZED PARABLE

Behold an advertiser went forth to sow. And when he sowed, some seed fell into handbills and dodgers, and the street cleaner came and gathered them up. Some fell amongst programs, and the people being interested in the performance and not in bargains, they were left on the seats or crumpled and thrown on the floor. And some fell among fake schemers and fake enterprises, and popular contempt sprang up and choked them. But some fell into legitimate home town newspapers, which found their way into the homes of the people, who had time to read them, and they brought forth fruit, some one hundred-fold. Who hath ears let him hear.

The man who gouges his fellows all week and then goes to church on Sunday and sings "Heaven is My Home," is going to get a jar when old St. Peter scratches out the "aven" and inserts "ll" in place of it.

LOOKING FORWARD TO TROTS

As the Great Ten Day Meeting of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association, October 2-14, at Lexington, draws nearer the admirers of this strictly American horse—the trotter—become more and more eager to hear the word sending away the field in the first heat of this the Grand Finale of the big light harness meetings of the year. And no wonder for amongst the $95,000 worth of events programmed there is the great classic, The Transylvania, a $5,000 race for 2:08 trotters, the field in which is indicative of an unusually hot contest; the $14,000 Kentucky Futurity for 3-year-old trotters, which furnishes the crucial test for the star trotting youngsters of the entire light harness world. Then there is the big $9,000 event known as The Breeders' Stakes for 2-year-old trotters; The Board of Commerce, a $3,000 pacing event for the 2:00 class—practically a free-for-all—the field of which embraces every sensation-ally fast pacer in training; and the Castleton Cup, for 2:07 trotters, the field in which will be largely composed of "Transylvania" eligibles. These are only a few of the good things in store—all of them are too numerous to recount here; but it is a safe prediction that with the ringing down of the curtain on the last day the most brilliant page of trotting history will have been added to the records of the sport.

IMPROVED CONDITIONS AT KENTUCKY CARLSBAD HOTEL DRY RIDGE, KENTUCKY

It will prove of interest to all those who have visited the Kentucky Carlsbad Springs to know that the Hotel has been thoroughly renovated and is "spic and span" from top to bottom. The improved conditions are favorable commented on immediately upon arrival of those who have visited the Springs in the past.

Our system of Baths have been wonderfully improved and, under the personal supervision of our Medical Director, we are securing the most wonderful results in the treatment of Rheumatism, Stomach, Kidney and Bladder trouble.

The general service, including meals, has been improved in keeping with the improved bath service, and we are sure you would be greatly pleased by same.

In addition to the regular treatment baths we are now equipped with the latest electrical and other appliances for the successful treatment of Rheumatism and other troubles of a similar nature.

Those who are unable to come to the Springs can secure the very best of results in Stomach, Kidney and Bladder trouble by the use of the water at home.

Kentucky Carlsbad Water is shipped in cases containing six half-gallon bottles of the Natural mineral water. In addition to the above we include in each case one small bottle of the water Fortified to be used, when required, to keep the bowels open, and is very valuable in the treatment of Liver and intestinal trouble.

To those who use the water at home, according to directions for a period of ten days or two weeks, depending on the trouble for which it is taken, we guarantee that they will be satisfied with the relief secured; otherwise, we will refund all the money paid for the water.

We have just issued a new booklet—write for one.

LOUISVILLE HOTEL AND OLD INN COMPANY, Props.

DO IT BEFORE WINTER

Paint up your house, repair the leaks in the roof, put the eaves troughs in proper condition, and make any other repairs necessary. It is your castle, the place where your happiest moments are spent, and a winter of pleasure will be assured if you attend to these things now. Your wife wants you to do it, whether she tells you so or not.

Clean out your well and see that it is in a sanitary condition. The health of your family should be your first consideration. And then, too, it saves doctors' bills.

Perhaps you need a walk or two around the house, or leading to the front gate, or to the barn, or elsewhere. Build it. Women should not be compelled to spend five or ten minutes scraping mud off of their feet every time they step out of doors, for it is an uncomfortable job in cold winter months.

Inspect your fences and make necessary repairs. It is more pleasant to do it now than to freeze your fingers in the dead of winter. You know it from experience.

Don't forget your stock. If there are any holes in the sides of your barn, repair them, too. A shivering animal does not think much of its owner, and neither do most people.

Get your neighbors together and look over the public school. The young people do not understand so well the necessity for proper ventilation and other sanitary measures. But they like comfort and plenty of fresh air. You did yourself, not so long ago.

Get busy on the roads. They need it, and you need the results of better ones. Just how would you like to be a horse, and strain every muscle in an endeavor to pull a load through a lot of sticky mud the long and wearisome road to town and back? Wouldn't like it, would you? Neither does the horse.

Go after the town officials and have that hole in the walk repaired, instead of walking around it every time you pass along the street. If they can't see it of their own accord it is time they had it pointed out to them. Do it yourself.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

FROM CHAIRMAN McCORMICK'S DAILY STATEMENTS

"The reunited Republican party is a myth. Mr. Hughes cannot reconcile the elements. They don't fit in with his creators at Chicago. He is playing a split, 50-50, half Progressive, half reactionary Republicans."

"Mr. Hughes inveighs against the pork barrel. Republican success would put at the head of the Senate Committee on Appropriations Senator Warren, of Wyoming, the most insatiable 'pork barrel' statesman in or out of Congress. He put through the Senate three bills appropriating $207,000 for three public buildings in three Wyoming towns, one with a population of 291, one with 975 inhabitants and the other boasting of 1,524 people. Senator Lea, of Tennessee, Democrat, forced the tabling of these bills.

"Boise Penrose, of Pennsylvania, would head the Senate Finance Committee—a thing to delight the Progressives who have exonerated him time and time again. William Alden Smith, of Michigan, would be chairman of the Committee on Naval Affairs. His conduct on the investigation of the Titanic disaster gave him a more enduring fame than any legislation he has fathered. He had been on the committee some years, but he did not know what a bulkhead was or what icebergs are composed of."

"Mr. Hughes is not a Progressive, never has been a Progressive, and by reason of his mental make-up, his traditional outlook on life, not to mention his obligations to his reactionary sponsors, never can be a Progressive.

"The Progressive convention in Chicago knew he was no Progressive, and hastened to nominate Roosevelt when the Republicans named Hughes. How can Hughes be a Progressive without betraying the very men who gave him the nomination?"

WILSON'S ELECTION SURE, SENATOR WALSH ASSERTS

Senator Thomas J. Walsh, manager of the Western Democratic campaign headquarters, gave out the following statement on the Maine election:

"The returns from Maine presage the election of Woodrow Wilson in November. While that State has gone Republican by about 12,000, it was carried by that party by a plurality of approximately 20,000 in 1910, 37,000 in 1908, and the combined Republican and Progressive vote in 1912 exceeded the Democratic vote by approximately 24,000.

"Another comparison affords still greater encouragement to the triumph of Wilson. Sills, who has lost in the race for the senatorship, has 10,200 votes more than were cast for Wilson in 1912."

A girl can always fool a man by making him think that he is fooling her.

SYSTEMATIZE

Your household expenses by opening a bank account for your wife. Give her a check book and teach her the use of it. Pay the butcher, the grocer, the baker, with a check. Then at the end of the month you'll find out just how much it costs you to run the home. When payment by check is made there never is any doubt as to whether or not a bill is paid. The check is a receipt.

Besides, a checking account will give your wife a business education. The number of ordinarily bright women who know absolutely nothing of banking is surprising. If you are a husband, father, brother, you cannot tell when death may overtake you, and it is well that your wife, daughter and sister know something of banking.

THE IRON BAR

A bar of iron worth $5, worked into horseshoes, is worth $10.35; made into needles, is worth $355; made into penknife blades, is worth $3,285; made into balance springs for watches, it is worth $250,000.

What a drilling the poor bar must undergo to reach all that. But hammered and beaten and pounded and rolled and polished, how its value was increased! It might well have quivered and complained under the hard knocks it got; but were they not necessary to draw out its fine qualities, and fit it for higher office?

So we say to the children and young people who weekly read this paper, all the drilling and training you receive at home and at school, and which seems so hard to you is all necessary to bring out your nobler and finer qualities and qualify you for more responsible posts and greater usefulness in the world.

CLIPPINGS FROM THE SNAGTOWN TORCHLIGHT

COME ONE, COME ALL! On Tuesday evening next there will be an entertainment for the benefit of the Town Cemetery, which is badly in need of funds to help it out. At this entertainment, which is given under the auspices of the Town Undertakers, there will be old-fashioned dancing and high jumping, also a 'Possum Supper and Literary readings. Come one, come all, and help out the Undertakers and the Cemetery.

It was a clean sweep in Snagtown. We only run for Boss of the Household, and even got beat out o' that!

A large bunch of Spooners are fully aware of the fact that the moonlight evenings are with us (or them) in full force.

There is a bill before the Legislature to run the moonshine stills from Coon Holler. (Will we have to pack our grip and move again?)

We've got a sixty-foot well in our yard, and some of these days we'll have a sixty-pound watermelon in it. So let the old world roll!

There will be plenty of room and fresh air in the Legislature next year, as the gentleman from Snagtown has promised to "raise the roof."

There's only one office which seems to offer us a chance now. We've about made up our mind to run for Gatekeeper of the Poorhouse.

Some one set fire to our house last week but a few misguided friends put the fire out, and we will not get enough cash damages to take a month's vacation.

We have noticed that any time a man's thermometer registers ten degrees hotter than his neighbor's thermometer he acts as if he was ten degrees smarter than his neighbor.

Our editor received this brief communication from his family at the seashore: "Dear, William—We are here on time. Already I am feeling better. I think the ocean is sublime. Send Mary's bathing suit by letter."

George Bean, the Horse Doctor of the Wildcat neighborhood, is at work on a patent medicine that will cure all diseases of man and beast, with just one dose. This will do away with all other medicines, as well as every other doctor, and the inventor will have easy sailing in his profession.

MAINE RESULT REALLY A DEMOCRATIC VICTORY

Commenting upon the Maine election, Secretary Daniels eluded the result was a Democratic victory and that when national issues were in consideration the Progressives voted with the Democrats.

"This is shown," said the Secretary, "by the fact that Milliken, the Republican candidate for Governor, got 77,000 votes and the two Republican candidates for Senator each got about 7,000 less. There is nothing discouraging in the result. If the Democrats would have carried Maine that would have ended the entire campaign."

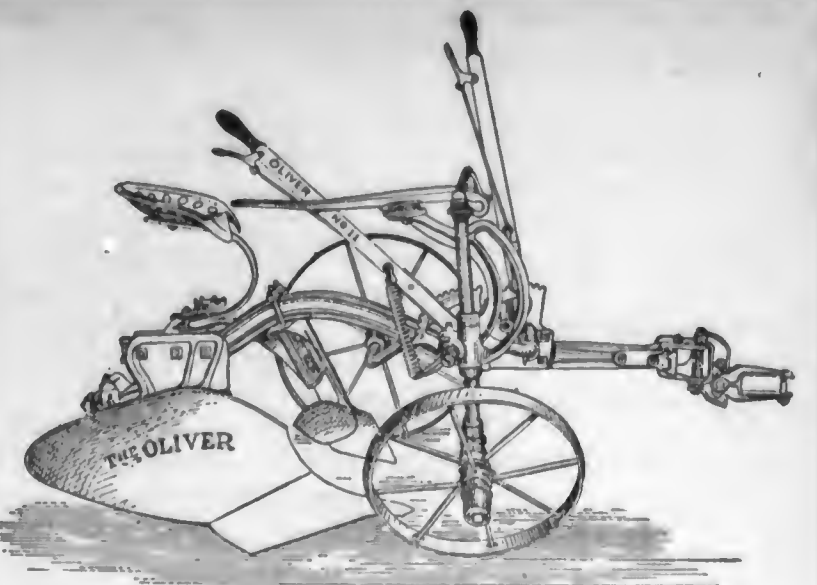

"Maine ought to have about 50,000 Republican majority; instead we cut it down to about 15,000. The result is a Democratic victory."

Mr. Daniels declares it was to be expected in Maine the Progressives would flock to the Republicans. He predicted that they would not do so in New York, Illinois and Ohio, but would come in great proportion to the Democratic party.

A BABY'S SOLILOQUY

One of our good neighbors who claims she can interpret "baby talk," vouches for the truthfulness of the following having fallen from the lips of a sweet little blossom of humanity that recently came to a home in our city: "I am here. And this is what they call the world. I don't think much of it. It is a very flannelly world and smells of paregoric awfully. It's a dreadful light world, too, and makes me blink; I tell you. And I don't know what to do with my hands. I think I'll dig my fists in my eyes. No, I won't. I'll scrubble at the corner of my blanket and chew it up, and then I'll holler; whatever happens I'll holler. And the more paregoric they give me the louder I'll yell. That old nurse puts the spoon in the corner of my mouth in a very uneasy way, and keeps tasting my milk herself all the while. She spilled snuff in it last night, and when I hollered she trotted me. That comes of being a two days' old baby. Never mind, when I'm a man, I'll pay her back. There's a pin sticking in me now, and if I say a word about it I'll be trotted or fed, and I would rather have catnip tea. I'll tell you who I am. I found out today. I heard folks say, 'Push, don't wake up Jane's baby. That's me. I am 'Jane's baby,' and I suppose that pretty, white-faced woman over on the pillow is Jane. No, I am mistaken, for a chap was in here just now and wanted to see Charley's baby, and looked at me, and said I was a funny little toad and looked just like Charlie. He smelt of cigars, and I'm not used to them. I wonder who else I belong to. Yes, there's another one—that's 'Ganna.' Jane told me and then she took me up and held me against her soft cheek and said, 'It was Ganna's baby, so it was.' I declare, I do not know who I belong to; but I'll holler and maybe I'll find out."

THIS TOWN

Do you want to see this town grow? Do you want to see more money in circulation here? Do you want more of that money yourself? Then stop kicking and get out and push. If you see a defect, help remedy it instead of complaining. Do something yourself instead of leaving everything for others to do. This town is and always will be just what we ourselves make it, just as the live wire communities are what their own live wires make them.

You can't cultivate corn with a dead horse, and you can't make a live town by simply telling others what they ought to do.

Colds

should be "nipped in the bud", for if allowed to run unchecked, serious results may follow. Numerous cases of consumption, pneumonia, and other fatal diseases, can be traced back to a cold. At the first sign of a cold, protect yourself by thoroughly cleansing your system with a few doses of the old reliable, vegetable liver powder.

Mr. Chas. A. Ragland, of Madison Heights, Va., says: "I have been using Thebford's Black-Draught for stomach troubles, indigestion, and colds, and find it to be the very best medicine I ever used. It makes an old man feel like a young one."

THE PATROL SYSTEM FOR ROADS

Shelby will be the first county to adopt the patrol system. Surfacing material has been placed at intervals along the five-mile stretch and the patrolman will keep it in constant repair, besides looking after ditches and culverts and keeping the right of way free from weeds.

Road Commissioner Wiley said this is the most economical way of repairing roads, besides insuring good roads all the time, and is urging its adoption by every county.

About twenty miles of state aid road will soon be completed in this county and no sooner is this road completed than it should be placed in the care of a patrol.

The Messenger was the first paper in the State to advocate the patrol system and we were hopeful that Graves would be the first county in the State to put the system into execution, but Shelby county saw the value of such a plan and has at once put it into execution—Mayfield Messenger.

STATE-AID WORK

We are informed that within the month the state-aid work on the Camargo and Owingsville pikes will be completed and that no other state-aid work can be undertaken this year. Owing to its miserable condition and its importance, we regret very much that the Paris pike was not reached this year, but we are told it and the Levee pike will be improved with state-aid early next year.

We are not informed whether any new turnpikes are contemplated, but if they are, we would be glad to see the road from the Levee to the Powell county line and from the Pratt hill, on the Jeffersonville road, to the Menefee county line, macadamized. Both of these roads are great business feeders for Mt. Sterling, as is the Paris pike and they should be kept in the best condition possible.

Every voter of the city, who wants peace, prosperity and preparedness, will lose his right to vote for Woodrow Wilson if he fails to register on Tuesday, October 3rd. The only legal excuses are absence from the city, between the hours of six o'clock a. m. and nine o'clock p. m. or illness. Register early so you will not forget it.

Notwithstanding the fact that the primary is not until August, 1917 and this is Presidential year, in most of the counties of the State many candidates for county offices are announcing.

WILSON'S PROGRESSIVISM

President Wilson's progressive ideas proven in legislation urged by him and materialized into law should appeal to the good sense of the true Progressives who were of that party because of the faith that was in them.

Equally do some of the Wilson appointments show his progressive tendencies. Notable among these are the appointments of Brandeis to the Supreme Court and Parry and Rublee to the Federal Trade Commission.

Let it be remembered too that these appointments were not forced or made for political reasons, but for merit and on principle. Rublee's confirmation was prevented in the Senate by Senator Gallinger, leader of the Republican "Old Guard."

Difficult will be the way of any Progressive applicant for office, even a Progressive Republican, if Hughes is elected; he will have to run the gauntlet of the "Old Guard" before appointment and again in the Senate for confirmation. And the same difficulties will beset progressive legislation.

THINK AGAIN, MR. JOHNSON

(St. Louis Post-Dispatch.)

Mr. Jackson Johnson, St. Louis manufacturer, while admitting that a railroad strike would have cost his company $200,000 a month, asserts that he has been unable to get anyone to explain to his satisfaction how President Wilson's course was right. Very well.

If Mr. Johnson's factory should catch fire would he have the fire department stand around and argue how the building laws should be revised or would he have them start immediately to extinguish the blaze?

If a surgeon is called up to perform an operation to save a man's life, would he have him first prepare a thesis on the wrong mode of living which made the operation necessary, or should he go ahead at once and operate?

If, to save a city from destruction by flood, it became necessary to cut a dike and submerge a farmer's wheatfield, would it not be better to do that than argue over future methods of flood control?

In the emergency the President and Congress obeyed the old Roman maxim—"Public welfare is the supreme law." A prolonged railroad strike would have cost the people of the United States hundreds of millions and inestimable suffering which no future legislation could have squared. The settlement made by Congress has prevented all that loss and misery and has done no injustice for which future laws cannot provide compensation.

IT'S A BIG JOB

No president since Lincoln has had to handle such complex problems as President Wilson has been confronted with. He has kept you out of war. He stopped the railroad strike. Financial, agricultural and labor legislation of his administration stand as a great monument to work well done. Do you want to make a change?

LET HIM FINISH IT ...

The People's Forum

Editors Advocate:—

Can you tell your readers what has become of the ordinance forbidding automobilists to blow their Claxton horns in the city limits after nine o'clock, p. m.? Not only do many blow them for apparent amusement as they go through the streets, but the greatest nuisance is for some lazy fellows to drive up in front of one of the garages about eleven or twelve o'clock at night, and, rather than walk twenty steps and ask for his gasoline, sit in his machine and make night hideous by a dozen unearthly blasts from his bull-dog horn. It is a great hardship for invalids and sleeping children, and surely ought not to be permitted in Mt. Sterling any more than in Winchester, where, I am told, the offender would be arrested. Can't you call attention to this unpardonable nuisance in your columns, and see if something can't be done?

Respectfully,

Taxpayer.

THE OLD GUARD

STILL COMMANDS

That the Republican party is a party of inaction as well as reaction is shown by the vote in the Senate on the Emergency Revenue measure. Every Republican Senator, save five, when voting on that bill, voted against:

1. A non-partisan tariff commission.
2. Readjustment of tariff on dye-stuffs.
3. Protection against post-hellum dumping.
4. Tax on excessive profits on war munitions.
5. Inheritance tax on swollen fortunes—the most equitable of all taxes.
6. Increase in income surtaxes—a small increase in the taxes of the very rich.

Of such are the leaders of the forces that nominated Hughes, and who will be in power in the event of Republican success.

OF

Three Blue Grass Farms

In Montgomery County, Kentucky

As Executors of John R. Thomas' will, the undersigned will sell at Public Auction, on Monday, October 16, 1916

(County Court Day) at about one o'clock, at the Court House door, in Mt. Sterling, Ky., three farms, to-wit:

FIRST: The Roger Gatewood farm, containing about 110 acres, on the Spencer turnpike about 2½ miles from Mt. Sterling. The land is part of the original J. S. Gatewood farm, lying on the Mt. Sterling side of the Gatewood home, is in excellent condition, beautifully situated and can all be cultivated. At present it is all in grass except about 4 acres. Every acre will raise tobacco. Frame dwelling, good stock barn and other improvements. Within ½ mile of church and school.

SECOND: The Henry C. Graves farm of about 187 acres, about 7½ miles from Mt. Sterling, on the Howards Mill turnpike, the residence of the late John R. Thomas. The farm is in good condition and is well watered by Slate Creek and fine springs. The land is of good quality, much of which will raise tobacco. About 40 acres are in cultivation, the remainder in meadow and grass. The improvements consist of a splendid two-story frame dwelling of about 10 rooms; large combination tobacco and stock barn, crib, cabin, meathouse, buggy house and other outbuildings, all in good repair. The residence and barn are supplied with water from the famous cold spring on the hill-top by means of a hydraulic ram. This is one of the most delightful homes in the county.

THIRD: A farm containing about 90 acres on Slate Creek, adjoining the Jacob See and Howard Howell lands, and near the Howards Mill turnpike. The said Howell land lies between this and the Graves farm described above. A small strip of land for a roadway to the pike belongs to this 90 acre farm. About 25 acres of it are in cultivation, the remainder in grass. It is well watered by Slate Creek and springs; a large part will raise tobacco; about 25 acres of Slate Creek bottom land.

These farms will be sold separately, and subject to survey at purchaser's expense, if he desires survey, each to the highest bidder, on terms of one-third cash, one-third in one year and one-third in two years, with interest on the deferred payments and liens on the lands to secure same. Further details will be given at time of sale. For further information call or address

METHODS—NOT DEEDS

The more signal the service rendered the people by any act of President Wilson, the more bitter the attacks on him by Republican papers.

He kept the country out of war. How they abuse his method of doing it.

He settled the strike situation by the firm adherence to the simple right. How Republican editors rave over his method of doing it. Heretofore their slogan of criticism has been "words not deeds"; but now when his words are few and his action prompt they are even more vociferous in their abuse.

Unhappy is the lot of Republican editors under the Wilson administration; in every case, to avoid palpable folly, they are forced to the tacit admission that either his action was right while his method only was wrong, or his method was right and his action wrong.

One can detect a wailing note, a minor chord of misery in all their objections.

RALLY DAY

For several years it has been the custom in the Bible School of the Christian church to hold a Rally Day on the last Sunday in September. The reason is this: Many members of the school have been irregular in their attendance through the summer months. Some have been away from home. Rally Day is the Home Coming Day for the Bible School when an effort is made to gather all its members and invite others to become members of the school. This year the day is next Sunday, and the school has set an attendance mark to be attained at seven hundred. If this mark is reached, it will be the greatest session of a Sunday School ever held in Montgomery county. The plan is to give a demonstration of the regular work of the school. While there will be several special numbers on the program, the regular lesson will be taught, and the effort will be to give visitors an idea of the work done every Sunday in the year. And everybody who is not a member of some other Sunday School in town is invited to be present.

Sunday night the annual promotion exercises will be held. The Sunday School year commences October 1st. There is a carefully arranged curriculum, and those who have completed the work in the several departments will have public acknowledgment made of their achievement at the hour of the regular Sunday evening service, 7:30. The exercises will be in the nature of a demonstration and display of the work done in the different grades. So, taken all together next Sunday will be a High Day in the Bible School of the Christian church, and they want to invite all their friends to enjoy the day with them.

For some three weeks a protracted meeting has been held at what is known as the Mission, on N. Queen street, in this city, by Messrs. Stone and Waldea and assisted by Mr. Frank Shields, of Carlisle, and Rev. R. M. Reynolds, of this city.

The meeting was well attended and 54 persons were converted, 84 confessed and 21 were baptised. The doctrine preached is what is commonly known as the "Holiness doctrine." The new converts banded themselves together and established a Sunday school with sessions every Sunday at 3 p. m., and preaching at least once a month. The work done is praise-worthy and entitled to the endorsement of all Christian people.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

Campaigns for state prohibition are on in seven states with elections this fall.

Every pint of brandy a steady drinker takes shortens his life eleven hours. Every pint of beer cheats him out of approximately twenty-five minute of earthly activity.

Government statistics show that in the census year 6,615,046 wage-earners were employed in all the industries of the United States, and that the brewing industry employed only 54,579 of them.

Eighty-eight per cent. of the manufacturers of the United States demand total abstinence of their workmen.

In the city of Munich one out of every sixteen of the hospital patients dies from "beer drinkers' disease."

The lawless have not the strength in politics that they claim.

There are more blind pigs in license communities than in prohibition territory.

For the first time in its history the Democratic party of Colorado has decided in favor of prohibition.

"The most powerful argument today for accession to the ranks of total abstainers is grim war," said Secretary of the Navy Daniels in an address before the Catholic Total Abstainers Union in Washington, D. C. "Cleanliness of life, sobriety, self-control are the fundamentals for the soldier of today."

Seven thousand one hundred sixty-five new savings accounts have been opened in Seattle since January 1. This has meant a gain of $100,000 a month in the actual individual savings of the people as compared with the first half year of 1915.

"No man and no body of men has a right to prosecute a calling which is necessarily antagonistic to the interest of a community."—Sir William Blackstone.

While 80,000 workers were on a strike in Norway, the government prohibited the sale or delivery of any alcoholic drinks.

Texas will vote on the prohibition amendment this fall.

Each minute in the United States, $4,860 is spent for alcoholic drink.

Bellevue Hospital, New York City, spent less than 3 cents per capita yearly for alcoholic liquors for a period of seven years.

Life insurance experts figure that each young man and woman of good habits and sound physique is an asset to the nation, as a producer or a conservator of wealth to the amount of $8,000.

One-half of the population living in wet territory lives in four states.

People always speak well of a boy who minds his own business and who seems to be disposed to be somebody in time. This is a queer world; many people are watching us, and help often comes when and from whom we least expect. Confidence is the safe in which men often deposit rich treasures and as you prove worthy so will your reward of success be. There is a reward in success, which none but those who strive can enjoy. Deserve success and it will come.

THE KAISER'S CANDIDATES

The primary law in Texas requires the successful candidate, in order to be entitled to the party nomination, to get a clear majority and not a mere plurality of the votes, and for this reason it is frequently necessary to hold two primaries.

In the contest for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator in Texas there were at the first primary three candidates, including Senator Culbertson, the incumbent, Governor Colquitt, and one other man. Mr. Colquitt made his campaign upon the argument that the Kaiser and not the President should be supreme in the United States. Mr. Colquitt defended the blowing up of the Lusitania, censured the President for maintaining American rights against German demands, and solicited the aid of the agents of the National German-American Alliance. In the vote that followed Mr. Colquitt received a slight plurality over his leading opponent, and a second primary was made necessary.

The Milwaukee German-Herald, printed in the German language at the metropolis of Wisconsin, made a mistake as to the law and got it into its head that the first primary was decisive and that Mr. Colquitt had been nominated. It accordingly made the following editorial comment upon the meaning of the vote:

"The Kaiser presumably has no idea what influence he exerts upon American politics. 'His candidates' seem to be simply invincible. In the Republican national convention at Chicago, the 'candidate from Potsdam,' as they called Mr. Hughes, got the nomination without so much as raising a finger. Much more astonishing is the victory the Kaiser recently won in the Democratic primaries in Texas."

The Kaiser has been disappointed in Texas. At the second primary, held last Saturday with only two candidates in the field, Senator Culbertson, who stands for America, defeated Mr. Colquitt, the Kaiser's candidate, by a majority of 60,000.

Interest accordingly shifts to the national campaign. Mr. Hughes is trying hard to please his supporters. Not one word ever comes from his lips in denunciation of the destruction of the Lusitania; he seems to be even afraid to discuss the Kaiser's demand for an embargo on arms.—Louisville Post.

Do You Ever Buy From Mail Order Houses?

IF SO, WHY? It could not be that you would rather buy from merely looking at pictures of what you wanted. Neither do we believe it is because you would rather send your money out of your home town and state never to return. IT must be because you THINK you can buy CHEAPER. WE KNOW YOU CAN'T DO THIS. Give us a trial this fall on your needs and we will PROVE THIS FACT TO YOU.

LET WELL ENOUGH ALONE

That the state of the country under the Wilson administration is such as to make the ancient adage "Let well enough alone" eminently applicable and time is shown in the following report of William Hoster, staff correspondent of the International News Service, who is accompanying Hughes the Fault-Finder in his campaign over the Western trail the pathfinders traveled a century ago.

From Denver, August 31st, he reports on the Hughes reception at a Colorado county fair:

"Evidence of the prosperity which practically the entire West is enjoying—one of the hardest nuts the candidate has to crack in his campaign—greeted him on every side at this gathering of farmers. There were not less than 2,000 automobiles lined up along the race track when the Hughes party entered the fair grounds. Thousands of well-fed, well-clothed women and children and prosperous looking grangers were present.

"The sheds scattered about the enclosure were stocked with fat prize hogs, sleek cattle and every variety of farm products. Overhead a monoplane evolved. It was a fair sample of the 'let well enough alone' audiences which have greeted Mr. Hughes throughout the tour."

Silence has every other kind of a bluff backed off the boards.

PHYSICAL CULTURE CLASS

Messrs. T. C. and Curtis Adams, of Winchester, were here last week completing the work of organizing a physical culture class to begin October 1st. Many local business men gave their assurances they would join the class. Mr. Curtis Adams will be the instructor and the class will have sessions every night. Mr. Adams enjoys a splendid reputation in this work and his class here is certain to be a success. A room in the McKee building over The Rogers Co., has been secured.

DIES IN MONTANA

Relatives here received news last week of the death of Mr. F. C. Colliden, which occurred at his home in Bozeman, Montana, Monday, Sept. 11, following an illness of several years. Mr. Colliden was eighty-six years of age. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Emma Calk, a sister of Mr. Price Calk, of this county, but no children. Deceased had frequently visited Kentucky with his wife and many friends will learn of his passing with deep regret.

WHY I AM FOR WOODROW WILSON

(By Irving Fisher.)

Professor of Political Economy Yale University and Member President Roosevelt's National Conservation Commission.

I attended the three conventions in Chicago and St. Louis, also some meetings of their platform committees, was present at Mr. Hughes' ceremony of acceptance and have read carefully the important documents and speeches of the campaign. After careful consideration, I have joined the Wilson Independent League. I thoroughly believe that the best interest of the country requires Mr. Wilson's re-election.

My chief reasons for voting for President Wilson follow:

1. The so-called issues of "Americanism," preparedness, the Lusitania incident, the Mexican situation, and all others that have grown out of foreign affairs, appear to me to be merely "red herrings across the trail" intended to put the public off the scent. I have little doubt that, by diverting attention from themselves to these trumped up issues, the Republican "old guard" hope to "put over" on the public another "Payac-Aldrich" tariff. They expect to work the war and Mexico for all they are worth to both hide and guide their own private interests after the election.

2. Moreover, quite irrespective of the moral issue in "protection," it seems to me bad national policy to keep the tariff longer in politics. The election of Mr. Hughes would surely do this. That of Mr. Wilson would at least go far toward dropping the tariff out of politics and toward taking politics out of the tariff. It is worth noting that if such a result can be accomplished through a tariff commission, it will certainly not be through a tariff commission appointed by protectionists.

3. I believe, at heart, Mr. Wilson's Mexican policy is sounder than that which Mr. Hughes seems to endorse. Few of the American people realize, as Mr. Hughes realizes, that here, too, is a case (and a far worse one than American protection) of special interests capturing a government in their own behalf.

4. So far as our relation to European affairs is concerned, I do not think that we shall become more efficient by swapping horses while we are crossing a stream. A change may plunge us into war and it would certainly, in the four months between election and inauguration, paralyze our foreign policy completely. From November to March may be the most critical months of the war. If Mr. Hughes is elected neither we nor foreign nations will know, during that interim, exactly where we stand.

5. There is another great danger to our national efficiency in voting the Republican ticket. If Mr. Hughes is elected, the Senate will probably remain Democratic. Only a Republican landslide can make the Senate Republican and of such a landslide there seems no prospect.

6. The Democratic platform is more progressive and effective than the Republican. The plank on Woman Suffrage is more progressive than the Republican. Mr. Wilson is more careful than Mr. Hughes to avoid giving the impression of making promises beyond his party's platform, promises which he cannot give any guarantees of keeping. But he is, I have reason to believe, at heart more of a suffragist than Mr. Hughes, who seems to accept Woman Suffrage as a sort of necessary evil; he would marry the suffragette to get rid of her!

7. I think the Democrats have kept faith with the people and deserve re-election on their record. Taken as a whole the Wilson administration has been more constructive than any previous administration for a generation. The Federal Reserve Act, the Farm Loan Act, the Underwood Act, the Child Labor Act and a half dozen others of importance are a monument, and an imposing one, to Mr. Wilson's efficiency in proposing, preparing and pushing legislation through Congress.

8. I also think that Mr. Wilson has withstood, with remarkable firmness, the tremendous pressure of office-seekers and maintained, as well as any previous president, especially at a change of administration, the principles of civil service reform. The attempt to prove the contrary has failed.

9. Like many other voters, I am repelled, rather than attracted, by a campaign of earping criticism in which the speeches of the Republican candidate consist chiefly of fault-finding, even where faults are to be found. Ridicule is a cheap political device which ill befits Mr. Hughes.

Woman is more practical than man, much more so. When a man discovers that he is losing his hair he invests lots of money in hair restoratives, which never do a bit of good. A woman does not waste time or money on restoratives; she goes and buys more hair.

FORD FOR WILSON

Henry Ford stated at San Francisco, Cal., last week, that he and his neighbors were for President Wilson because they constantly see so much good in the things he is doing.

"Because of the many good things President Wilson has done I think he should be commended and heartily appreciated," said Mr. Ford.

"Every neighbor you meet will tell you the good things in the administration of President Wilson. I feel just as these people do about what he has done and realize keenly that his great neutrality policy during the European war has had the patent successful result of keeping this country at peace.

"The efforts of his opponents to try and make political capital because of President Wilson's determination not to measure swords with poor deluded Mexico have already ended in distinct failure."
